

```
DUTY ON WHICH ENGAGED:
                                                    COURT OF INQUIRY, INVESTIGATING OFFICER ILCG/PCL
                                                    OR COMMANDING OFFICER'S REPORT:
       Cross Country Solo.
                                                                       MONTHLY ACCIDENT RETURN.
     NATURE OF ACCIDENT AND STAGE OF FLIGHT:
                                                    DATE:
                                                                      DATE OF COURT OF INQUIRY
                                                    COMPOSITION:
                                                                      3-5-48
      Aircraft flew into top of hill,
      turned over and burned. THE PILOT
                                                                                        J.G. ARCHAMBAULT.
                                                                      SQUADRON LEADER
                                                                      FLIGHT LIEUTENANT J.K. MCBRIDE
  HAS UNCERTAIN OF HIS EXACT POSITION AFTER FLYING
                                                                                        J.D. HALL
                                                                      FLYING OFFICER
  THE DIFFICULT TRACK BETWEEN KILLALOE AND TWEED (
                                                    RECOMMENDATIONS:
  THE METERROLOGICAL REPORT SHOWS THAT THERE WAS A
                                                                THAT STUDENT PILOTS SHOULD OBTAIN A MINIMUM OF 40 HOURS VISIBILITY OF 10 MILES AND A SLIGHT HAZE) AND FLEW LOW
                                                                 TOTAL FLYING TIME ON A NEW TYPE OF MACHINE BEFORE ENOUGH TO PERMIT HIM TO READ THE NAME OF THE TOWN ON THE PROMOMEN XXANSEX THE RAILWAY STATION. AFTER ASCERTAINING
                                                                 BEING SENT ON SOLO CROSS-COUNTRY FLIGHTS.
                                                                                                            TRAT THE
  HIS POSITION EXACTLY THE PILOT HEADED HIS AIRCRAFT IN THE SOLO CROSS-COUNTRY FLIGHTS BE DISTRIBUTED EVENLY
  DIRECTION OF HIS BASE. IT CAN BE ASSUMED. BUT NOT PROVEN
                                                                 THROUGHOUT THE REMAINDER OF THE COURSE.
) THAT THE PILOT NEGLECTED THE PILOTAGE OF HIS AIRCRAFT IN ORDER TO MAKE AN ENTRY IN HIS NAVIGATORS LOG, SET ACTION TAKEN:
   HIS COMPASS. OR CHANGE FROM ONE FUEL TANK TO ANOTHER(A) DISCIPLINARY (B) TECHNICAL (C) OTHER
  THE PILOT ASSUMABLY HAD NOT REALIZED HIS LOW ALTITUDE
  AND THE AIRCRAFT WAS TAKING UNTIL HE SAW A RIDGE
  RUSHING TOWARD HIM. WHICH MADE HIM REALIZE HIS PLIGHT
  AND PROBABLY RESULTED IN THE PANICKY USE OF THE CONTROLS.
    SECONDARY CAUSE OR CONTRIBUTING FACTORS: RECORDED BY
                                                                                                                  DATE CHECKED BY
                                                                                                                  DATE
```