| | 26.7.42 | | Yellow Section then set out for home individually, but P/O Clerk, R.A.F. Army Air Corps, who was one of three American pilots attached to this flight, in his operational experience, is missing, the remainder of No. 412, a 413 Squadron, returned to their bases safely. "B" Blue Section on standing patrol 0 feet, at a point 157 degrees, 70 minutes from Selsey Hill, saw two A/C, believed to be R.A.F. 190's, Blue Section gave chase, but a/c pulled away rapidly & were soon lost. "A" Flight carried on on uneventful convoy patrol Selsey Hill, and a patrol to St. Catherine's. "C" Flight made a trip from Houlings to Herston, also A/C test, local flying, a trip from West Houghett to Herston. | |
| | 27.7.42 | | As weather was bad this day, neither "A" or "B" flights did any flying. | |
| | 28.7.42 | | "A" Flight had uneventful scramble, made a trip from Herston to North Weald and return, carried out A/C test, cannon test, also some local flying. "B" Flight had uneventful scramble, also uneventful air to sea rescue spotting, two local cannon tests. | |
| | 29.7.42 | | Yellow Section while on convoy patrol, 30 miles south of Brighton, were attacked by two R.A.F. 190's, who were later joined by two of their colleagues carrying bombs, making four altogether. A collision occurred and P/O Green, whose one of their A/C, went down into the sea, but our casualties, nil. Change of command of R.A.F. Station Herston, No. 412 Squadron, P/O R.C. Vernon, relieving the command of No. 412 Sqdn, on being posted to R.A.F. Tangmere, P/O, was taken over command of No. 412 Squadron, being posted from No. 41 Squadron. "A" Flight made uneventful convoy patrol to Selsey Hill, & St. Catherine's, carried out A/C test. "B" Flight, had uneventful convoy patrol. | |
| | 30.7.42 | | Uneventful convoy patrol for "A" Flight, practised formation flying, non operational, beat up with Army, and some local. "B" Flight made uneventful scramble, non operational practice, beat up with Army. | |
| | 31.7.42 | | "A" Flight had an air test, and cannon test. Experienced a swap and scramble, but nothing to report. "B" Flight carried on an A/C test, also cannon test, held a swap, over France, also a sea patrol, but nothing to report on either. | |
